

Merry Christmas 2023

Let's go to Bethlehem: Jesus is waiting for us.
 Let us listen to the voice of His ambassadors.
 Maria is calling us with her maternal smile.
 The angels who have descended from heaven invite us to sing Gloria.
 The shepherds and the Wise Men beckon us to come with them to the stable.
 Let us unite our voices to theirs to praise and thank the small King of Heaven Who is lying in the manger.

Dear friends and benefactors,

we are reaching out to you with a brief letter to extend to you our heartfelt wishes for a peaceful and Holy Christmas and to inform you of some latest events that have occurred.

We Consoling Sisters of the Sacred Heart can thank Our Lord who is assisting, guiding and protecting us in every single moment of our lives. He is blessing us with the increasing arrival of girls who ask to verify their vocation among us. In June this year we had 5 First Professions and 12 Vestitions; in addition, as many as 21 girls entered the Postulancy and many more come here to visit. The St. Joseph Novitiate is now full and we thank God for that.

A great event that joyfully occupied us this year was the founding of a house in America; thus, on August 11, five of our sisters left and are now doing apostolate in Arizona, in Phoenix.

In September, our small school began again, with ever-increasing numbers of boys and girls flowing in: families are approaching us for support, not only scholastic but especially spiritual.

More and more families also come to the traditional Holy Mass, the center and heart of our life, and from here, countless graces then flow upon each believer.

In October, by the special grace of Our Lady of Czestochowa, Father Emanuel du Chalard, Mother Maria Rita, accompanied by two sisters, went to visit Poland at the invitation of Father Sthelin, who would like help in meeting the great needs of that people.

How can we not thank God for so many benefits, both spiritual and material?

We know well that if God visits us like this, with countless undeserved graces, it is also because of the prayers and sacrifices of many people who are close to us. So we want to thank you for all the good you do for us and for your support, including material support. We always pray and offer for you and entrust you to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Our Lady, that they may bless you and your loved ones with a shower of graces from Heaven.

May the Child Jesus bless you and keep you!
